DVD description:

This is the title of the first film about

FOREST KINDERGARTENS IN GERMANY, Part 1

There are three types of forest kindergartens featured in this documentary:

- The Flensburg forest kindergarten (the first of its kind in Germany),
- The "Naturkindergarten der Landwege" in Lübeck
- The walking group of the Wetzlar-Münchholzhausen day care centre

The main aspects of each concept are presented in an entertaining and captivating way, highlighting the educational benefit of this new form of nursery work. Children, however, remain centre stage, the focus being on their experiences and activities in a woodland environment. Kindergarten teachers, parents, forest rangers, politicians as well

Summary:

01. Introduction (01:41)
02. The forest kindergarten in Flensburg (07:13)
03. The nature kindergarten in Lübeck (06:48)
04. The hiking group in Wetzlar (06:40)
05. The educational use in forest kindergarten (13:43)
06. Educator in forest kindergarten (03:23)
07. Conclusion (04:33)

They provide answers to the questions that ...

- parents frequently ask about forest kindergartens (basic information),
- you may ask yourself if you consider setting up a forest kindergarten,
- supervisory staff (youth officers, counsellors, consultants, etc.) and politicians face in their daily work.

This film is designed to give you a clear and vivid introduction to this unconventional form of nursery education.
